President's Invitation

Dear Invitee,

I am delighted to invite you to the lunch debate “The EU, Africa and China: Opportunities and challenges of a Trilateral Cooperation” hosted by the Ludwig von Mises Institute Europe and the Friedrich Naumann-Stiftung für die Freiheit. China has greatly increased its influence and activities in Africa in order to secure important resources. This however means there are potential problems as well as opportunities in the relationship between the EU and China. Our lunch debate will let both our experienced speakers and You, the participant, discuss the matter. We are looking forward to your presence.

Kind Regards,

Annette Godart van der Kroon

President of Ludwig von Mises Institute Europe.

Conference Information

LVMI-Europe

The Ludwig von Mises Institute-Europe was officially established on 12th October 2002 as a non-partisan think tank fostering an open and free society.

It bears the name of Ludwig von Mises, one of the most prominent libertarian economists of the whole 20th century, and one of the main representatives of the Austrian School.

The Ludwig von Mises Institute-Europe primarily aims at:

- Exchanging and reintroducing the basic values and principles of Liberalism, especially the ideas of the Austrian School.
- Bridging the gap between “Brussels” and the European citizens and between Eurocrats and Euro-skeptics.
- Acting as an interface between the academic, the political and the business world.
- Connecting liberal-minded individuals and organizations at national and international levels.

Since its foundation, the Ludwig von Mises Institute-Europe has successfully organized a variety of conferences, symposia, discussions, targeted dinner debates and lunch debates. Members include former Prime Ministers, MEPs, former European Commissioners, key politicians, senior academics, business leaders and prominent journalists.

Friedrich Naumann-Stiftung für die Freiheit

The main focus of attention for the Dialogue Programme Brussels (DPB) of Friedrich Naumann-Stiftung für die Freiheit, the German foundation for liberal policies, lies in promoting the North-South and East-West dialogue. The event programmes concentrate on topics which are significant in designing liberal policies such as human rights, civil society, market economy, free trade and the environment. The DPB provides a renowned forum, particularly for multipliers from developing and transition countries, to develop politically timely and solution-orientated approaches in collaboration with members of the European Parliament, representatives of the Council of Ministers, the European Commission as well as NATO decision-makers. Expert speakers from non-governmental organizations, European umbrella organizations and think tanks are regularly invited to participate in these discussions.
